There are mounting indications that Brobdingnag will explode its third atomic device in the near future. Reliable Western observers report troop and truck movements like those preceding the first two tests.

Chairman Mao Me-down told a Lilliputian party delegation last week that preparations for the next test were well advanced.

The regime, in an apparent new effort to turn adverse world opinion in Brobdingnag's favor, has embarked on a louder than usual propaganda campaign defending the country's need to "protect" itself with nuclear weapons.
